CHRISTIAN MEDICAL COLLEGE, LUDHIANA SOCIETY

The Christian Medical College, Ludhiana Society (Regd.) is an Educational and Research Institution established, maintained and administered by the minority Christian community as an institution of an all-India character with health professionals committed to the highest standards, in the Spirit of Jesus Christ, for the healing ministry in India.

Founded in 1894 by Dame Edith Brown as a medical school for women, in 1953 the college started the MBBS program affiliated with the Panjab University, Chandigarh admitting men and women students. Since July 1999 the college has been affiliated with the Baba Farid University of Health Sciences, Faridkot. The post-graduate program started in the Sixties. The college offers Post-graduate Degree, Super specialty and Doctoral courses in the disciplines of Medicine, Dentistry and Nursing.

PHILOSOPHY AND OBJECTIVES OF THE INSTITUTION

Christian Medical College Ludhiana Society, on behalf of the Church, seeks to contribute to the health needs of India by training Medical, Dental, Nursing and other allied health professional students and by providing holistic health services to the community and the nation, with people of the Christian faith serving in Christ's name alongside with those of other faiths, who identify with these aims and goals.

Primarily concerned with Christian students who have a mandate to go and serve the people especially in the unreached areas, training is also offered to students from all religions and regions. Staff of all faiths live and serve together in the institution in an atmosphere of mutual respect, trust and love that is marked by a sense of God's presence and action in their corporate ministry in the Institution.

The Society has established the Institution (Christian Medical College, Christian Dental College, College of Nursing, College of Physiotherapy, Institute of Allied Health Sciences, Hospitals and other units) in the Christian ethos of commitment, concern, care and compassion as an expression of God's love to all.

The mandate of post graduate training in Christian Medical College Ludhiana is to provide excellent, comprehensive training to graduates for the advancement of medical knowledge and research for the healing ministry in India, and primarily focusing on the people in unreached, remote parts of the country served by the mission hospitals.
